Article 1: Scope of Application

1. The accommodation contract and related agreements entered into by the hotel with the guest shall be in accordance with the provisions of these general terms and conditions, and any matters not provided for in these general terms and conditions shall be in accordance with laws and regulations or generally established customs.
2. If the Museum agrees to a special agreement to the extent that it does not contravene laws, regulations and customs, such special agreement shall prevail notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Article 2: Application for Accommodation Contract

1. A person who wishes to apply for an accommodation contract with this hotel is requested to provide the following information to this hotel.
 - 1) Guest Name
 - 2) Date of stay and estimated time of arrival
 - 3) Other matters deemed necessary by the Museum
2. In the event that a guest requests to continue his/her stay beyond the date of stay stipulated in item 2 of the preceding paragraph during his/her stay, the hotel shall treat such request as a new application for a contract of stay at the time such request is made.

Article 3: Formation of Accommodation Contract, etc.

1. The accommodation contract shall be concluded when the hotel accepts the application as described in the preceding article. However, this shall not apply when the hotel proves that it did not give its consent.
2. When an accommodation contract has been concluded pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, an application fee determined by the hotel within the limit of the basic accommodation charge for the period of stay shall be paid by the date designated by the hotel.
3. The deposit shall first be applied to the room charge ultimately payable by the guest, and if a situation arises in which the provisions of Articles 6 and 18 apply, the deposit shall be applied in the order of penalty followed by compensation, and any remaining amount shall be returned upon payment of the charges pursuant to Article 12.
4. In the event that the reservation deposit as stipulated in Paragraph 2 is not paid by the date designated by the hotel pursuant to the provisions of the same paragraph, the accommodation contract shall lose its validity. However, this shall apply only in the event that this hotel has notified the guest to that effect when designating the date for payment of the application fee.

Article 4: Special clause that the application fee is not required to be paid

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2 of the preceding article, the hotel may accept a special agreement that does not require the payment of the application fee as specified in the same paragraph after the contract is concluded.
2. In the event that the hotel does not request payment of the application fee as stipulated in Paragraph 2 of the preceding article or does not specify the date for payment of said application fee, the hotel will treat the application as having complied with the special agreement stipulated in the preceding paragraph.

Article 5: Refusal to enter into an accommodation contract

The hotel may refuse to conclude an accommodation contract in the following cases When an application for accommodation is not in accordance with these general terms and conditions.

4. When it is clearly recognized that the person who intends to stay is a person with an infectious disease.
5. When a guest is requested to bear a burden exceeding a reasonable range with regard to accommodation.
6. When it is impossible to accommodate guests due to natural disasters, breakdown of facilities, or other unavoidable reasons.

7. When the case falls under the provisions of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Ryokan Business Law.
8. The person seeking accommodation is a member of a crime syndicate, a member of a crime syndicate, a company or organization affiliated with a crime syndicate, or its related persons, or any other antisocial force (hereinafter referred to as "crime syndicate or other antisocial force"). (2) If the person seeking accommodation is a member of a crime syndicate, a crime syndicate member, a company or organization affiliated with a crime syndicate, or a person or organization affiliated with a crime syndicate.
9. When the person seeking accommodation is a crime syndicate, or a corporation or other organization whose business activities are controlled by a member of crime syndicate.
10. The person who intends to stay is a juridical person and one of its officers falls under the category of a crime syndicate.
11. When a person who intends to stay at the hotel uses language or behavior that causes significant inconvenience to other guests.
12. In the event that the person seeking accommodation commits a violent act of demand against the hotel or its employees, or demands a burden in excess of a reasonable range.

Article 6: Guest's Right to Cancel Contract

1. The guest may cancel the accommodation contract by making a request to the hotel.
2. In the event that the guest cancels all or part of the accommodation contract due to reasons attributable to the guest (except in the event that this hotel specifies the due date for payment of the application fee and requests payment thereof pursuant to Article 3, paragraph 2, and the guest cancels the accommodation contract prior to such payment), this hotel shall charge a penalty fee as listed in Appended Table 2.), the hotel will charge a penalty fee in accordance with the provisions listed in Appended Table 2. However, in the event that this hotel accepts the special contract stipulated in Article 4, Paragraph 1, this will only be the case when this hotel has notified the guest of the obligation to pay the penalty when the guest cancels the accommodation contract in accepting the special contract.
If the guest does not arrive at the hotel by 8:00 p.m. on the day of the stay (or 2 hours after the estimated time of arrival, if such time has been specified in advance) without giving notice, the hotel may deem the accommodation contract to have been cancelled by the guest and treat it as such.

Article 7: Right of the Museum to Cancel the Contract

1. The hotel may cancel the accommodation contract in the following cases
 - 1) When it is recognized that the guest is likely to commit an act contrary to the provisions of the law, public order, or good morals in connection with his/her stay, or when it is recognized that the guest has committed such an act.
 - 2) When it is clearly recognized that the guest is a person with an infectious disease.
 - 3) When a guest is requested to bear a burden exceeding a reasonable range with regard to accommodation.

Article 9: Room Hours of Use

1. Guests may use their rooms from 3:00 p.m. to 11:00 a.m. the following morning. However, in the case of a consecutive stay, the guest may use the room for the entire day except for the day of arrival and the day of departure.
2. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the hotel may accept the use of a room outside the hours specified in the preceding paragraph. In such cases, the following additional charges shall apply
 - 1) 10% of the amount equivalent to the room charge per excess hour
 - 2) Over 3 hours, 100% of the room charge

Article 10: Compliance with Rules of Use

Guests shall follow the rules of use established by the hotel and posted in the hotel.

Article 11: Business Hours

1. The hours of operation of the hotel's main facilities are posted at each location and in the service directory in the guest room.

Article 12: Payment of Fees

1. The breakdown of accommodation charges, etc. payable by the guest shall be in accordance with the items listed in Appendix 1.
 - 1) Payment of the accommodation charge, etc. set forth in the preceding paragraph shall be made at the front desk at the time of the guest's departure or when requested by the hotel, in currency or by a credit card accepted by the hotel or by any other method that can be substituted for such payment.
 - 2) Room charges shall apply even if a guest voluntarily does not stay at the hotel after the hotel has provided a room to the guest and made it available for use.

Article 13: Liability of the Museum

1. In the event that the hotel causes damage to a guest due to the performance or non-performance of the accommodation contract and related agreements, the hotel shall compensate for such damage. However, this shall not apply if the damage is not caused by reasons attributable to the hotel.
2. The hotel is committed to disaster prevention, but in the unlikely event of a fire, etc., the hotel has Ryokan liability insurance.

Article 14: Handling of cases in which the contracted rooms cannot be provided

1. If the hotel is unable to provide the guest with the contracted room, the hotel will, with the consent of the guest, arrange other accommodations under the same conditions as far as possible.
2. If, notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, this hotel is unable to find other accommodation, it will pay the guest a compensation fee equivalent to the amount of the penalty, and the compensation fee will be applied to the amount of compensation for damages. However, if there is no reason attributable to the hotel for not being able to provide a guest room, no compensation fee will be paid.

Article 15: Handling of Deposited Property, etc.

1. In the event of loss, damage, etc. to articles, cash, or valuables left at the front desk by a guest, the hotel shall compensate for such damage, except in cases where such damage is caused by force majeure. However, with regard to cash and valuables, if the hotel requires the guest to disclose the type and value of such items and the guest fails to do so, the hotel will compensate for such damages up to 50,000 yen.
2. The hotel will compensate for any loss, damage, etc. caused by the guest's intentional or negligent misplacement of articles, cash, or valuables brought into the hotel by the guest that are not left at the front desk. However, the hotel will compensate for damages up to 50,000 yen for items for which the type and value were not specified by the guest in advance.

Article 16: Storage of Guests' Luggage or Personal Effects

1. If a guest's baggage arrives at the hotel prior to his/her stay, the hotel will take responsibility for keeping it only if the hotel understands the baggage before its arrival and hand it over to the guest when he/she checks in at the front desk.
2. In the event that a guest's luggage or personal belongings are left behind at the hotel after the guest has checked out, the hotel will not, in principle, contact the owner, even if the owner is found. If the owner cannot be identified, the hotel will keep the baggage for one month from the date of discovery and dispose of it afterwards.
3. The responsibility of the hotel for the custody of the guest's baggage or personal belongings in the case of the preceding two paragraphs shall conform to the provisions of paragraph 1 of the preceding article in the case of paragraph 1, and to the provisions of paragraph 2 of the same article in the case of the preceding paragraph.

Article 17: Responsibility for Parking

When a guest uses the parking lot of the hotel, regardless of whether or not the guest has deposited the keys to the car, the hotel rents the parking lot to the guest and is not responsible for the management of the car. However, the hotel will be liable to compensate for any damage caused by the hotel's intentional or negligent management of the parking lot.

Article 18: Liability for Accommodation

1. The responsibility of the hotel for accommodation begins when the guest registers for accommodation at the front desk of the hotel and ends when the guest leaves the room for departure.
2. In the event that the hotel is unable to provide a guest room due to reasons attributable to the hotel, the hotel will make every effort to arrange other accommodations with the same or similar conditions for that guest, except in the case of natural disasters or other difficulties.
3. In the event that a guest room cannot be secured regardless of the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a compensation fee equivalent to the room charge will be paid to the guest, and the amount of compensation will be equivalent to the amount of compensation for damages. However, if there are no reasons attributable to the hotel, such as natural disasters or unforeseeable breakdown of facilities, for not being able to provide a guest room, no compensation will be paid.
4. The hotel will not be held responsible for any accidents that occur when the hotel is unable to provide rooms to guests due to reasons beyond its control or due to force majeure. The hotel is also not responsible for accidents that occur due to a guest's failure to follow the rules of use posted at the hotel.

5. As a rule, the hotel does not keep guests' belongings. Guests are responsible for managing their own belongings, including valuables. Please note that the hotel is not responsible for any loss or theft.

6. In the event that the hotel suffers damage due to the intentional or negligent act of a guest, said guest shall compensate the hotel for such damage. In the event that the guest room cannot be sold due to damage, defacement, or removal of equipment or fixtures, the hotel will claim the amount of damages including the period when the room cannot be sold.
